

Full time M&A Internship

HELLO, HEJ, GUTEN TAG, MOI – IS IT YOU WE'RE LOOKING FOR?

At MCF, we value an entrepreneurial mindset and true team players. We're looking for enthusiastic communicators and analytical minds. If that sounds like you, apply for an internship in our Hamburg office.

WHAT YOU'LL DO

- Gain experience and support the team in all aspects of M&A transactions
- Strong involvement in sell- and buy-side projects and current mandates
- Work on pitch preparations, target and investor identifications, as well as management presentations
- Conduct market, industry and company research
- Work on financial modelling and valuation analyses

WHAT YOU'LL GET

- Broad experience with M&A transactions in an international environment
- Exciting range of tasks and valuable on-the-job training
- Strong team-spirit and support from all team-members
- Flat-hierarchies with an opportunity to learn from experienced professionals

WHAT YOU'LL BRING

- Strong academic track record of at least 4 semesters in economics, finance or similar
- Advanced Excel and PowerPoint skills
- Fluent in German and English
- Preferable work experience within investment banking, management consulting or other advisory
- Entrepreneurial mindset and the commitment to work in a high focused team environment

Apply here, by submitting your CV.

WHO WE ARE

MCF is a leading independent M&A advisory firm with a focus on cross-border and mid-market transactions. Our multinational team works from 4 offices across Northern Europe and with the support of our transatlantic partners D.A. Davidson & Co., we provide best-in-class deal capabilities for large corporates, leading mid-sized companies, private equity and family offices worldwide.

To find out more about us, our benefits, culture and commitment to diversity and inclusion, visit our website. We strongly encourage candidates from all backgrounds and especially underrepresented groups to apply – we value different points of view.