Full time M&A Analyst

HELLO, HEJ, GUTEN TAG, MOI – IS IT YOU WE'RE LOOKING FOR?

At MCF, we value an entrepreneurial mindset and true team players. We're looking for enthusiastic communicators and analytical minds. If that sounds like you, apply to become an Analyst in our Stockholm office, starting in summer or autumn 2023.

WHAT YOU'LL DO

- Work on sell- and buy-side mandates with exposure to various industries
- Involvement in all steps of the M&A process, ranging from financial analysis and modelling, to negotiations, marketing and legal processes
- Work with different client groups, such as entrepreneurs, private equity firms and corporates
- Conduct company and industry research
- Prepare financial and valuation analyses

WHAT YOU'LL GET

- Opportunity to take on early responsibility in a flat organisational structure
- Exposure to all aspects of M&A transactions in an international environment
- Exciting range of tasks and deals, with a steep learning curve
- Strong team spirit and support from all team members
- Various learning and development opportunities

WHAT YOU'LL BRING

- Strong degree, preferably in Finance, Business or related areas
- Preferably experience through relevant internships in Investment Banking, elite M&A boutique, Management Consultancy or other advisory roles
- Advanced Excel and PowerPoint skills
- Fluency in Swedish and fluency in English
- Self-starter mentality and great interpersonal skills

Apply here, no later than October 9 by submitting your CV and a cover letter.
