

Full time M&A Internship

HELLO, HEJ, GUTENTAG, MOI – IS IT YOU WE'RE LOOKING FOR?

At MCF, we value an entrepreneurial mindset and true team players. We're looking for enthusiastic communicators and analytical minds. If that sounds like you, apply for an internship in our London office, starting in March/April 2023.

WHAT YOU'LL DO

- Gain experience and support the team in all aspects of M&A transactions
- Work on marketing initiatives, create marketing materials and presentations
- Support company and industry research
- Work on financial and valuation analyses

WHAT YOU'LL GET

- Broad experience with M&A transactions in an international environment
- Exciting range of tasks
- Strong team-spirit and support from all team-members
- Flat-hierarchies with an opportunity to learn from experienced professionals

WHAT YOU'LL BRING

- A recent graduate/post-graduate or past way through your Masters
- Previous work experience desired in Investment Banking, elite M&A Boutique, management Consultancy or other advisory environments
- Advanced Excel and PowerPoint skills
- Fluent in both written and spoken English
- Self-starter mentality and great interpersonal skills

Apply here, no later than January 31st by submitting your CV and cover letter.

WHO WE ARE

MCF is a leading corporate finance, M&A and debt advisory with 5 offices in Northern Europe and a strategic partnership with U.S. investment bank D.A. Davidson. Together we offer unparalleled corporate access and a transatlantic M&A platform that provides best-in-class capabilities to clients within the middle market worldwide.

To find out more about us, our benefits, culture and commitment to diversity and inclusion, visit our website. We strongly encourage candidates from all backgrounds and especially underrepresented groups to apply – we value different points of view.